Interview with General Cohen
Tint China

DENIAL IN COURT OF Contract

Captain John Bell, a director of the Bailey Armament Company, who the previous Thursday gave evidence before the Arms Committee, was a witness at the Old Bailey on February 7.

Alexander Harford Taylor (46) and Montague Wimberly (47) were charged with conspiracy to defraud and trying to obtain £1,000 by false pretences from Commander Charles Bellamy St. John Bell, R.E. (retired).

Wimberly was discharged at the conclusion of the trial for the prosecution, the jury agreeing there was no case against him.

Captain Bell said that he interviewed Tucker last autumn in connection with arms for China, but nothing came of it. He never had a contract with his firm.

Captain Bell agreed that Tucker introduced him to a General Cohen. The Common Sergeant (Mr. Cecil Whittlesey, K.C.) : What will be A general in?

Captain Bell : The Chinese army. Captain Bell said that at the time General Cohen, who had considerable influence in the army in Southern China, was in England.

An American named Breckinridge had authority to act for his firm in issuing a letter to Tucker or General Cohen that no order for arms were given. Captain Bell said if the necessary permit from the Chinese Government, they would supply the arms, provided the Board of Trade would issue the necessary export license.

Nothing came of the interview with General Cohen.

Tucker later professed at his meeting with Mr. Breckinridge, who convinced him he was an agent for the Bailey Armament Company. Breckinridge, he said, caused him to admit in the hall of admissions, telling him there were big profits in such transactions.

Mr. (Tucker) informed General Cohen in China that he did not know whether he could supply arms to him, or not.

Tucker denied that he ever visited China or the Far East.

GENERAL COHEN IN CANTON NOW

Personal Bodyguard of the Late Dr. Sun Yat-sen Revisits City

Amongst the personages of interest who have recently arrived in Canton is General Maurice A. Cohen, who is closely connected with the Nationalist Government of China at Nanking, writes the Canton correspondent of the "Hongkong Telegraph." General Cohen was for a long time personal body-guard of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen. Since the death of Dr. Sun, he has been very closely connected with political movements in Canton and South China. Last year, he went to Paris and London with Mr. Hu Han-min and Mr. Sun Fo, and was received by Sir Austen Chamberlain and other important members of the British Government.

Returning to Canton at the end of last year, General Cohen remained here for about three months, until in March this year he was called north to Nanking and Peking in connection with the state burial of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen. It is notable that General Cohen was the only foreigner who travelled from Peking to Nanking on Dr. Sun's funeral train.

Since that time, General Cohen has been closely connected with the Ministry of Finance of the Nationalist Government. He is on a visit to Canton on official business. Though he would not disclose the nature of his business, it is surmised that it has to do with the re-establishment on the Central Bank notes for the province of Kuangtung.

When questioned regarding the present situation of the Nationalist Government with regard to the rebellion of General Chang Fa-kwei and his Ironsides, General Cohen would only state that the matter was in entirely competent hands and that entire confidence reigned in Nanking. He further stated that General Chang Fa-kwei had no chance whatsoever of overthrowing the Central Government and that it was only a matter of a few weeks before the Ironsides would be completely wiped out. Furthermore, Nanking was absolutely confident that General Tang Yu-hsing would not move against the Central Government in conjunction with General Chang Fa-kwei.

MORRIS ABRAHAM COHEN.

Morris Abraham Cohen, 41, was born in London of Jewish parents on 3-3-1887. While he was still of school age, his family moved to Alberta, Canada. He now considers himself to be a Canadian and appears to be acquainted with a large number of politicians in that country. Reports received from Shanghai state that his career in Canada was marked by connections with professional gamblers and shady real estate business. He removed from Canada to the U.S.A. and spent several years in New York. It was in America that he first met the late Dr. SUN YAT SEN about the year 1910. Since then he has been closely connected with the activities of the Kuomintang political party in China.

Cohen was in Canada at the outbreak of the Great War, and there assisted in the organisation of the Chinese Labour Corps. He later proceeded to England and France with a railway battalion. After the war he returned to the U.S.A. and resumed his old relations with the Canadian branch of the Kuomintang. In 1923 he proceeded to Canton at the instance of the Kuomintang party in Alberta. On arrival in Canton he became the personal bodyguard to Dr. SUN YAT SEN. Since then he has visited the U.S.A. several times on Kuomintang business. His visits to U.S.A. were probably with the intention of collecting funds for the Kuomintang party, but H.B.M. Consul-General at Canton wrote in 1925 that he was of opinion that smuggling of Chinese into the North American Continent was probably Cohen's real aim.

When Dr. SUN YAT SEN died in March 1925, Cohen was unemployed for some time. In July 1925 he was acting as a sort of liaison officer for the Commissioner of Police, Canton, and later made several trips to Shanghai and the North in connection with projects for extending the Canton-Hankow Railway and for developing the Canton Harbour, under SUN FO (son of Dr. Sun Yat Sen) who was then Commissioner of Reconstruction. Since then he appears to have been liaison officer for whatever party has been in power in Canton, and at the end of 1927 he was in Hong Kong purchasing army mules for General LI CHAI SUM.

He is known to have been in Russia, but the date of his visit is not known. Although he claims to be a patriotic Briton, his views are now entirely Chinese. According to a report received from Shanghai at the end of 1925 Cohen favours the abolition of Extraterritoriality, and points to the treatment of Russian and Germans as evidence that China is fit to assume judicial control over foreigners, and that he visited Peking in 1925 for the purpose of finding a formula to enable the governments of North and South China to co-operate in matters effecting foreigners.

He left Hong Kong for Colombo on the S.S. President Wilson on 28-1-28, together with SUN FO, C.C. WU, WU HON MAN and NG TIT SHING (WU TE CHEN), a party of Nationalist Government officials proceeding to Europe, at the expense of the Nanking Government, to study economic and political conditions.

On 6-3-28 he arrived in Capetown, South Africa, travelling on British passport No. I/1927 issued by H.B.M. Consul-General at Canton, and stated he was visiting his sister Mrs. HERNSTEIN of Market Square, Salisbury, South Africa, and that he proposed to rejoin the Chinese officials at the Chinese Legation in London.

He returned to Hong Kong alone, via Saigon, on 28-8-28 and proceeded to Canton on the next day. In January 1929 he was appointed A.D.C. to the military headquarters at Canton, under Marshal LI CHAI SUM, and accompanied LI CHAI SUM to Shanghai on the S.S. Empress of Russia which left Hong Kong on 6-3-29.

Office of 23/7/17
Chief Police Officer,

No. 11-1917.

Singapore 9th July, 1917.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that a London Jew named M.S. Cowan alias Sydney Mark alias Myh Cohan who for some years past has resided in Singapore where for a time he followed the profession of a bookmaker and has latterly been running the "Palladium Cinema-Theatre is proceeding to Japan ostensibly to act as advance Agent for an Illusionist named Goldenberg who goes under the Stage name of Goldin but there is some reason to suspect that he has some other object in view though what the object is not known at present.

2. There are three convictions recorded against this man at Scotland Yard for larceny and receiving and fine as suspected person. His first conviction was in 1898, the last in 1904.

3. From England he seems to have gone to South Africa where it is said he received three months for theft, and 18 months for burglary but so far I have not been able to obtain any confirmation of this.

4. From South Africa he went to India where he received 6 mths for theft and 8 mths, for High-way Robbery. The last mentioned conviction was at Calcutta where he was also placed under Police Supervision.

5. Some years ago he managed by fraud or False Representation to get Rs 500. from a Frenchman living at Criterion Hotel Rangoon and made off with the money to Penang but he appears to have escaped punishment for this offence as a friend of his Mr. Tully, Tin-miner & bookmaker refunded the money to the Frenchman.

6. Cowan has recently been to South Africa, which country he visited with the express object of doing business in connection with the import of teak but it is said that he made use of his time to smuggle pearls with the assistance of his wife.

7. Cowan is about 41 years of age, his height is about 5' 4", stout build, fair hair, fair complexion, brown eyes, clean shaven.
